

Oeuvre – The Multi Designer Store

Unlike earlier with the emergence of the concept of multi-designer stores, you don't have to travel from one city to another for putting your hands on designer clothes. As consumers are upstaging the standard for fashion in India, multi-designer stores are being set up with numerous designers in one single store.

Today the Indian consumers are more involved with the global trends, and especially in the luxury sector, therefore increasing the demand for fashion-forward styles. This consumer awareness about fashion has led to the trend of multi-designer stores, and this concept has turned out pretty amazing for both, renowned as well as newcomer designers.

Oeuvre is a multibrand luxury boutique based in Bangalore. From casual & summery long dresses & kurta sets to festive & wedding wear gowns & lehengas, they have it all. It is the one stop shop for all designer wear & jewellery.
